Customer Story

Contract Review Agentic AI System

A leading global software ISV faced a challenge with manual and time-consuming contract reviews that slowed business timelines and created the risk of missed clauses and non-compliance.

WinWire deployed a Contract Review Agentic AI System that automated the first-pass contract review, cutting review time by 50-70%. The system intelligently detected, redlined, and flagged high-risk clauses while aligning with the client's legal playbooks.
